

“EARLY AMERICAN CARTOGRAPHIES” HOTEL INFORMATION

Conference participants and attendees are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements. The Newberry Library has held a block of rooms at the Talbott Hotel for the nights of Wednesday, 1 March through Saturday, March 4 (check-out on Sunday, 5 March). Rooms are $119 a night for a single and $139 a night for a double. You will need to give the hotel a credit card number in order to reserve a room. The room block will be released on Tuesday, 7 February, so please make your reservation by then if you would like to stay at the Talbott. When making your reservation, you must tell the hotel that you are with the Newberry Library Early American Cartographies group.

The Talbott Hotel is an intimate, boutique-style hotel located approximately one-quarter of a mile east of the Newberry Library (about an 8-10 minute walk). Complimentary high-speed wireless internet access is available in guest rooms and the lobby. The hotel is handicap accessible.
