OTHER RESOURCES

The Family History Library in Salt Lake City also collects Czech and Slovak-related materials. Explore the Library's on-line catalog (<http://www.familysearch.org>) to see what types of records are available through the Family History Library's microform loan program. Ask at the 2nd floor reference desk for details.

For further Chicago-area research, the Czech and Slovak American Genealogy Society of Illinois is a membership society which specializes in researching and preserving the heritage of Bohemian, Moravian, Slovakian, Silesian, and Ruthenian ancestors with connections to the Chicago area. The society maintains a surname index and research collection, and assists members with research. The organization also publishes the quarterly journal Koreny and maintains an index to it on their website, <http://www.csagsi.org/>

The Czechoslovak Genealogy Society International holds conferences and symposia, and offers online resources for members researching families of Czech, Bohemian, Moravian, Slovak, German, Hungarian, Jewish, Rusyn, and Silesian origin.
