Italian Paleography Workbook

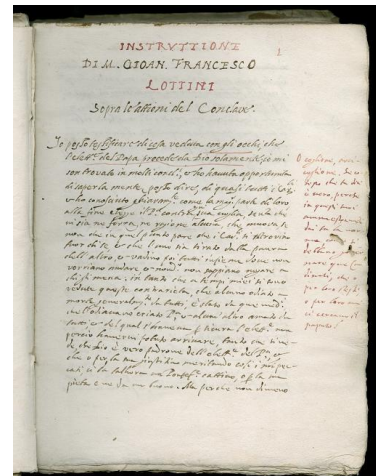

by Armando Petrucci and Franca Petrucci Nardelli

From the 1993 Summer Institute in the Archival Sciences at the Newberry Library Center for Renaissance Studies, the noted paleographers Armando Petrucci and Franca Petrucci Nardelli prepared a workbook for use in classroom instruction in Italian paleography. Funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities, these workbooks are available for individual and classroom instruction for five dollars to cover shipping expenses. When finished with the workbook, we request that you submit a brief evaluation of the usefulness of the workbook for your purposes and make suggestions as to ways to improve it.

To order a workbook, please send a check for $5.00 payable to the Newberry Library, along with your name and address to:
