"Directions: The six outline maps in this book have complementary sheets printed in colors on gummed paper, representing the various countries or states to be fitted in over the outline maps of the continents. When these are cut out and pasted into place as a puzzle a complete map in color is the result. Completing this book offers hours of fascinating work and the finished book, with its romantic story, makes a splendid addition to every child's library."--T.p. verso.

Turner refers to these in his text as ‘little schemes’; they consist only of place names in letterpress type arranged geographically, and in every case but one (Portugal) are paired with a conventional engraved map of the same size signed ‘Turner delin.’

The maps are reprinted, sometimes in new settings, in later editions of the ‘New and easy introduction’ through the 14th (and last?) ed. [Baskes G 125 .T87 1810].

1 atlas (2 v.): 255 col. maps (some folded); 49 cm.

'Supplement to the Weekly Dispatch of Sunday ...
...'-embossed, color stamp on some maps listing date of publication.

'The idea of the work originated in the Editor’s experience of the fact that by no Atlas existent at the commencement of this Publication could he pursue the narrative of events as presented to him in his daily reading, in their geographical or topographical bearings.'--preface.

Although an atlas of the countries of the world, this atlas contains a set of very up to date county maps of England, drawn and engraved by B.R. Davies, John Dower, T. Etting, J.W. Lowry, and Edward Weller. These maps originally appeared in the Weekly Dispatch newspaper from 1856 to 1862. They were reissued between 1863 and 1867 by Cassell, Petter and Galpin and then published collectively as Cassell’s Atlas. The plates were acquired by G.W. Bacon & Co., and reissued in 1876 under the title Bacon’s New Quarto Atlas ... of the Counties of England, and many times since under various titles.--Whitaker: The Harold Whitaker Collection ... Univ. of Leeds, 1947, p. 95.

V.1 includes maps of Great Britain, including county maps and street plans of London & suburbs. V.2 includes maps of the other countries.

Cartes marines : a la substitution du Valde proche Solevre en Svisse, MDCCXVII. [ca. 1640-ca. 1726].
117 leaves (121 maps and 11 views) : ms., hand col.
Title from cover.
Compiled ca. 1640-ca. 1726, probably under the direction of prominent members of the Besenval family, who served as high military officers and diplomats for the French crown. Maps detail French colonial interests in the style of military and naval cartographers. Most sheets are anonymous and undated.
Previously formed part of the Besenval family library at Castle Waldegg outside Solothurn, Switzerland. Jean-Victor Besenval (1671-1736) and his son, Pierre-Victor Besenval (1721-1791) both served as commanders of the Swiss Guards. Jean-Victor also served the French king on diplomatic missions to Sweden, Saxony, and Poland. He or his brother, Jacques-Charles Besenval (1674-1738), another officer in the Swiss Guards, were probably responsible for the establishment of the library at Waldeck.

For more information refer to the title page of this volume.

Bound together in 1727 as an atlas comprised of 115 (i.e. 117) numbered leaves; includes sheets '71a' and '106a.' Maps later disbound and mounted on cloth. All sheets are drawn with pen-and-ink and watercolor; most were previously folded. Portions of original covers and 'Table des feuilles rassemblées dans ce volume en 1727' rebound in separate oversize volume (568 x 377 mm.)

Each leaf cataloged individually, forming part of the Cartes Marines Manuscript Map Collection. Maps filed by geographic regions in the following order: Afric, Madagascar and neighboring islands, coastal India and China, Moluccas, Philippines, Strait of Magellan, eastern American coasts, South America, West Indies, Louisiana, Nova Scotia, Labrador, and the St. Lawrence River valley, ending with maps of Lorient and the Gironde River valley.

Checklist of subjects, titles, and dates shelved with the collection. The maps are accompanied by 4 volumes of ms. memoirs on colonial possessions dated 1702-1750, but are not directly related to them (VAULT Ayer MS 293). The memoirs bear the same cover title as the atlas, but are cataloged under supplied title: Memoranda on French colonies in America, including Canada, Louisiana, and the Carribean. Memoire volumes stamped with variant dates: 1725 (v. 1), 1727 (v. 2-3), and 1732 (v. 4). See Ruth Lapham Butler, Check list of manuscripts in the Edward E. Ayer Collection (Chicago: Newberry Library, 1937) p. 33, no. 293. Additional volumes with identical titles are held by the Zentralbibliothek Solothurn and the Bibliothèque Nationale de France.

Maps and memoirs apparently acquired in two separate transactions by Edward E. Ayer for the Newberry Library before World War I; the maps were acquired from bookdealer Jacques Rosenthal in Paris. See the Newberry Library Map Information File. Forms part of both the Edward E. Ayer Manuscript Collection and the Edward E. Ayer Manuscript Map Collection (Newberry Library).

Nouveau theatre du monde, contenant les estats, empires, royauttes et principautez ... Paris : P. Rocolet, 1644.

8 v. in 6 : port., fold. maps ; 35 cm.

Vol. 2 only has general title page; others have special title pages. The 'Discovrs universel' with separate pagination, has half-title only; incorrectly bound with v. 2. Titles in red and black; vignettes, capitals, and head-pieces.

Vol. 2, 2nd edition, edited by F. Ranchin; v. 3-5 'novelle édition ... par J. Baptiste de Rocoles' (Troyes & Paris: D. Bechet et L. Billaine, 1660-1661). Some of the maps bear imprint dates later than those of the respective volumes. Imperfect: a map of Denmark, Norway and Sweden wanting in v. 4 according to manuscript note.

Maps range in date from 1749-1790.
 Imperfect: lacking map of Germania antiqua "Table de l'atlas", tipped in at beginning, is an updated list of maps, listing 3 additional maps dated 1786 that are not in the "Table des articles contenus en ce volume" (p. 34).
Three maps are earlier versions of those listed in Phillips. "Carte de l'Empire d'Allemagne", "La Prusse", and "Amérique septentrionale" are dated 1756, 1751, and 1775, respectively. Includes map of France not listed in "Table de l'atlas" or Phillips: Le Royaume de France : divisé en 83 départements, suivant les décrets de l'Assemblée nationale des 15 Janvier, 16 et 26 Février 1790 ... / par C.E. Delamarche ... 1790.

Cartes et tables de la géographie physique ou naturelle : présentées au roi le 15 Mai 1757.
Paris : Sur le Quay de l'Horloge; avec les cartes de Guill. Delisle et de Phil. Buache, [1770].
Authors: Buache, Philippe, 1700-1773 -- L'Isle, Guillaume de, 1675-1726 -- Desbruslins, F. -- Haye, G. de la -- La Rochefooucauld-d'Enville, Louis-Alexandre, duc de, 1743-1792 -- Académie des sciences (France)
1770 issue of Buache's atlas, published in Paris in 1757, with seven additional engraved plates, including an engraved title page plate, and 46 pages of text in two hands. Maps include a bathymetric map of the English Channel, and a map illustrating Buache's theory that all the continents are linked together by the mountain systems of the world as a single interconnected whole.
Title and imprint from first plate, 'Avertissement.'
Texts and maps by Philippe Buache.
Plates engraved by Desbruslins (Pere), and G. Delahaye.
Double plates, hand-colored.
Some maps published previously, separately or in other works; for descriptions of the ten maps and three tables, dated 1737, 1739, 1740-42, 1746, 1754, and 1756, which appeared in the 1757 ed., cf. Phillips (no. 220); Lada-Mocarski (no. 11); H.R. Wagner's Cartography of the Northwest coast of America (v. 2, no. 550); and R.V. Tooley, The mapping of America (nos. 88, 99).
Text supplied in several manuscript essays which were published in the Memoires of the Academie where they accompanied smaller versions of some of the maps.
Chain lines are vertical on map plates; plates in some other copies have horizontal chain lines.
Presentation copy from the library of Louis Alexandre, duc de La Rochefooucauld, who was president of the Academie des Sciences when the atlas was published; partly-legible ownership stamp on t.p., possibly of the Bibliotheque of the Academie des Sciences in Paris.

Facsimile of original published: Duisburgi Clivorvm, 1595.

Facsimile lacks the dedicatory verses and the treatise on the creation.

Facsimile in Latin; commentaries in German.

The first part, originally published in 1585, is composed of three fascicles, each with a special t.p.: Galliae tabule geographicæ ; Belgii Inferioris geographicæ tabule ; Germaniæ tabule geographicæ. The second part, originally published in 1589, has special t.p.: Italiæ, Sclavoniae, et Graeciae tabule geographicæ. The third part, under whose title the work is published, precedes the first and second parts. Left unfinished by the author, it was completed, and the whole work edited and published by his son, Rumold Mercator, in 1595.
