How to Use Our Collection

The Newberry is an independent research library; readers do not check books out to take home, but consult materials here. We welcome into our reading rooms researchers who are at least 14 years old or in the ninth grade. Creating a free reader account and requesting collection items takes just a few minutes. Please visit https://requests.newberry.org to begin the registration process and to start exploring our collection; when you arrive at the Newberry for research, a free reader card will be issued to you in our third-floor reference center. For further information about our collection and public programs, please visit www.newberry.org.

Contemporary Elegiac Writing about Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln. Eulogies Call #: E 5 .L63993
A bound collection of 22 pamphlets in 2 volumes, with the text of eulogies, addresses, orations, etc., given by religious and civic leaders across the United States in the months after Lincoln’s death. The majority of the pamphlets are from New England, especially Massachusetts, and New York.

Abraham Lincoln. Funeral sermons. Call #: E 5 .L63994
A bound collection of 50 pamphlets in 2 volumes, with the text of sermons and addresses given in churches across the United States in the months after Lincoln’s death. The majority of the pamphlets are from churches in New England, especially Massachusetts, and New York.

The divinely prepared ruler, and, The fit end of treason : two discourses delivered at the First Presbyterian Church, Springfield, Illinois, by invitation of the session, on the Sabbath following the burial of President Lincoln, May 7, 1865, by Rev. Henry A. Nelson, Pastor First Presb’n. Church, St. Louis. Call #: Case E457.8 .D22 1865
The text of two discourses given at the church Lincoln and his family attended while living in Springfield, Illinois. From “Sermons on the death of Abraham Lincoln,” a bound collection of nine pamphlets.

The victorious. A small poem on the assassination of President Lincoln. By M.B. Bird. Call #: Case Y 274 .09
Poem written by Mark Baker Bird, a Methodist missionary in Haiti, with an introduction describing the grief felt in Haiti at the news of Lincoln’s assassination, connecting it to Haiti’s history of slavery and revolution.

Manuscripts with Reactions to Lincoln’s Assassination

Edward A. Barnes Papers, 1865-1893. Call #: Midwest MS BarnesE, folder 3
A pocket diary in which Barnes, a Chicago-based songwriter, mainly recorded the weather. He adds “The Death of Abraham Lincoln” on April 15, 1865.

John V. LeMoyne Papers, 1851-1889. Call #: Midwest MS LeMoyne, folder 4
A letter, written on April 24, to LeMoyne, a Pennsylvania lawyer, from his sister Jane. She writes “Were you all not shocked at Lincoln’s murder? It seems so horrible to have such a thing happen in this century.” She then describes the general dislike of Lincoln’s “mild” treatment of the rebels hopes that Andrew Johnson will be “more likely to give them their due.”
Eugene E. Prussing papers, 1928-1957. Call #: Midwest MS Prussing, folder 1
A manuscript autobiography in which Prussing recalls his father telling his family the news of the “awful event” and going to see Lincoln’s body twice while it lay in state in Chicago’s City Hall, joining the line that stretched three blocks along Washington Street. Robert Leslie Wiles journal, 1862-1865. Call #: VAULT Case MS 10022
A pocket journal in which Wiles, a Union soldier from Missouri, describes a “great day of mourning” for President Lincoln on April 17, 1865.

Sheet Music about Lincoln’s Death, Published in 1865

Rest, Noble Chieftain. Song on the Death of President Lincoln. C. Archer.
Rest, Spirit, Rest. Grand Requiem March to the Memory of Abraham Lincoln. E. Hoffman
In Memoriam. In honor of President Lincoln. Dr. F. Haase
Oh! Speak to Me Once More! (The exclamation of Mrs. Lincoln, as she bent over her dying husband), W. Dexter Smith Jr. & Henri Cromwell

A Nation Weeps: or The Death of President Lincoln, J. W. Turner
Saule-Pleureur (Weeping-Willow). Marche Funèbre du President Lincoln, B. A. Whaplen
Little Tad, J. W. Turner
President Lincoln’s Funeral March, E. Mack
Call #: Driscoll Box 150

Other Resources

The Newberry also owns over one hundred modern transcribed editions of Civil War letters and diaries, many of which contain soldiers’ reactions to Lincoln’s death. Call #: *E 600s

Newspapers, either in bound volumes or on microfilm, microfiche, or microcard, cover April 1865 from cities including Chicago, Washington DC, Boston, New York, Baltimore and others. Call #: A6...

Search related subject headings for more materials about Lincoln’s assassination and public reaction to it:

Lincoln, Abraham, 1809-1865--Assassination.
Lincoln, Abraham, 1809-1865--Assassination--Public Opinion.
Lincoln, Abraham, 1809-1865--Death and Burial.
United States--History--Civil War, 1861-1865--Correspondence
United States--History--Civil War, 1861-1865--Personal Narratives.

This Quick Guide was created for the program “Farewell, Father, Friend”: Lincoln’s Death in Music and Letters, held at the Newberry on February 15, 2017.