

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Illinois, The University of Illinois History Department, and the Newberry Library present the

Colonial History Lecture Series

Circles and Squares Natives and Colonists and Maps

Alan Shaw Taylor

Saturday, April 27, 2019

10:00 to 11:30 am

The Newberry, 60 W. Walton St., Chicago

By examining a map made by natives of the Carolina backcountry in Alan Taylor reveals efforts to understand and adapt to colonial trade and settlement.

He will explore the contrast between settler and native ways of understanding the environment and intercultural diplomacy. This exchange of view helps to restore native peoples and their diplomacy to center place in colonial history.

Alan Shaw Taylor is Thomas Jefferson Foundation Chair of History at the University of Virginia. Two of his seven books have been awarded the Pulitzer Prize, William Cooper's Town: Power and Persuasion on the Frontier of the Early American Republic (1996) and The Internal Enemy: Slavery and War in Virginia: 1772-1832 (2014). His most recent work is American Revolutions: A Continental History, 1750-1804 (2016).
