Two Books on Black Childhood and Criminalization in America

Wednesday, February 13, 2019

6:00 pm Author Talk, 7:00 Book Signing

Join us as authors Tera Eva Agyepong and Elliott Gorn explore the tangled history of black children and America's criminal justice system.

- The Criminalization of Black Children: Race, Gender, and Delinquency in Chicago's Juvenile Justice System, 1899–1945, by Tera Eva Agyepong
- Let the People See: The Story of Emmett Till, by Elliott Gorn

After their talk, the authors will sign copies of the books, which will be available at the Newberry's Rosenberg Bookshop.

Tera Eva Agyepong is Assistant Professor and Director of the History of Law Minor and Pre-Law History Concentration at DePaul University.

Elliott Gorn is Professor and Joseph A. Gagliano Chair in American Urban History at Loyola University Chicago.
