Chasing Phil

The Adventures of Two Undercover Agents with the World's Most Charming Con Man

Tuesday, March 20, 2018
6:00 to 7:30 pm

A thrilling true crime caper, bursting with colorful characters and awash in '70s glamour, that spotlights the FBI's first white-collar undercover sting

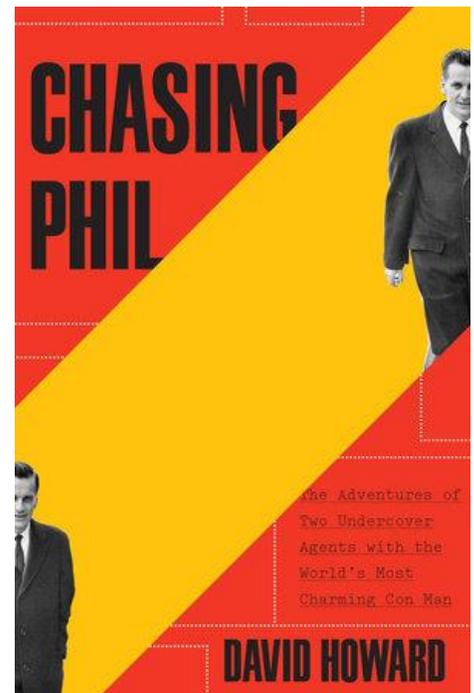

Phil Kitzer was at the center of dozens of scams in which he swindled millions of dollars, but the FBI was mired in a post-Watergate malaise and slow to pivot toward a new type of financial crime that is now all too familiar. Plunging into the field with no undercover training, the agents battled a creaky bureaucracy on their adventures with Phil, hoping the FBI would recognize the importance of their mission. Even as they grew closer to Phil, they recognized that their endgame—the swindler's arrest—was drawing near . . .

After the talk, Mr. Howard will sign copies of his book, which will be available for purchase.

Journalist David Howard is also the author of Lost Rights: The Misadventures of a Stolen American Relic.
