Jefferson's Daughters

Three Sisters, White and Black, in a Young America

Wednesday, June 6, 2018

6:00 to 7:30 pm

The remarkable untold story of Thomas Jefferson's three daughters—two white and free, one black and enslaved—and the divergent paths they forged in a newly independent America

Thomas Jefferson had three daughters: Martha and Maria by his wife, Martha Wayles Jefferson, and Harriet by his slave Sally Hemings. Kerrison recounts the remarkable journey of these three women—and how their struggle to define themselves reflects both the possibilities and the limitations that resulted from the American Revolution.

After the talk, Dr. Austen will sign copies of her book, which will be available for purchase.

Catherine Kerrison, associate professor of history at Villanova University, is also the author of Claiming the Pen: Women and Intellectual Life in the Early American South.

Cosponsored with the Jack Miller Center
