FREE PUBLIC PROGRAM

Meet the Author
Julia Guarneri and Michael Stamm

Two Books on Newspapers and the Making of Modern America

Thursday, April 11, 2019

6:00 pm Author Talk; 7:00 pm Book Signing

Join us as authors Julia Guarneri and Michael Stamm discuss the social and material cultures surrounding the rise and fall of printed newspapers, and their roles in the development of the diverse, contentious, and commercial public sphere of the twentieth century.

Newsprint Metropolis: City Papers and the Making of Modern Americans, by Julia Guarneri

Dead Tree Media: Manufacturing the Newspaper in Twentieth-Century North America, by Michael Stamm

After their talk, the authors will sign copies of the books, which will be available for purchase at the Newberry's Rosenberg Bookshop.

Julia Guarneri, a social and cultural historian of the United States focusing on the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, lectures in US history at the University of Cambridge, where she is also a fellow of Fitzwilliam College.

Michael Stamm, a political and cultural historian whose research explores media and journalism history, is associate professor of history at Michigan State University.
