Redlined

A Memoir of Race, Change, and Fractured Community in 1960s Chicago

Wednesday, April 18, 2018
6:00 to 7:30 pm

Set against the backdrop of the Civil Rights Movement, Linda Gartz exposes the racist lending rules that refused mortgages to anyone in areas with even one black resident.

Told through the lens of Linda's discoveries of the personal and political, Redlined delivers a riveting story of a community fractured by racial turmoil, an unraveling and conflicted marriage, a daughter's fight for sexual independence, and an up-close, intimate view of the racial and social upheavals of the 1960s.

After the talk, Ms. Gartz will sign copies of Redlined: A Memoir of Race, Change, and Fractured Community in 1960s Chicago, which will be available for purchase.

Linda Gartz is a six-time Emmy-award-honored television producer, blogger, and essay writer.
