

Free Family Programs Second Saturdays

Music and Stories for Kids

Join the Lucky Trikes Storytelling Chamber Band for a unique interactive melange of music and stories, from long ago through today, drawn from books in the Newberry collection. Storyteller Deirdre Harrison and percussionist/composer KG Price are joined by different musicians each month.

Every session ends with a hands-on Musical Instrument Petting Zoo!

September 9, 10:00 to 11:00 am

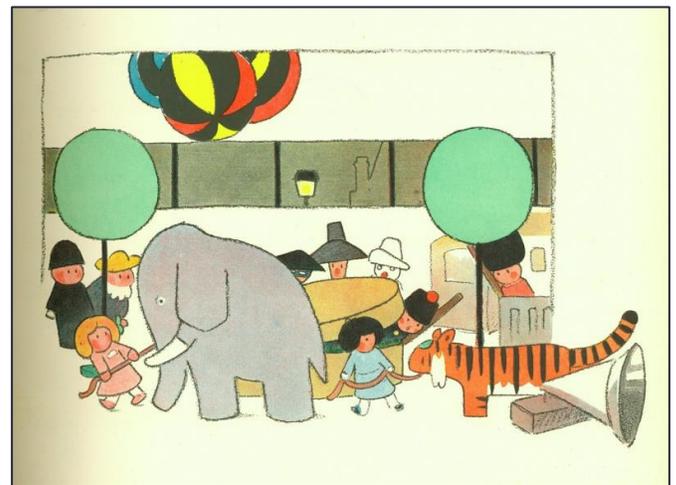

Mischief, Rules, & Lessons

Selections from Why Be a Goop?, Tales for Youth, Madlenka's Dog, and Angry Aardvark to Zealous Zebra: Curious Creatures ABC.

October 14, 10:00 to 11:00 am

One World, Seen and Unseen

Selections from Down-down-Derry: A Book of Fairy Poems; Aliguq/ Alega, an Inuit Story; Alice's Adventures in Wonderland; and Greet the Dawn: The Lakota Way.

Debussy's La boîte à joujoux: ballet pour enfants, 1913

The Lucky Trikes

November 11, 10:00 to 11:00 am

Dolls, Toys, & Winter

Featuring pianist Mabel Kwan

Stories, songs, and activities, with selections from Debussy's La Boîte à Joujoux/The Toybox; The Children's Book of 100 Pictures; and Down-down-Derry: A Book of Fairy Poems.

These programs are free and open to the public; no registration required.
Children must be accompanied by a parent or other adult.

www.newberry.org/public-programs